

SMART Money Goals

First Step: For each goal identified on your "$ Goals Brainstorm" worksheet, print 1 copy of this SMART Money Goals worksheet. Each brainstormed goal gets its own "SMART Money Goal" tracker.

Then: Design your goals using the SMART (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant (my Why) and Timebound) rule to help you succeed financially. Visit Ready2Budget.com for detail tips and tricks for each goal characteristic.

S Smart	What is your specific goal?	Notes
M Measurable	What does progress look like?	Notes
A Actionable	What is within my control?	Notes
R Relevant	What is my 'Why'?	Notes
T Time Bound	What is a realistic and ambitious end-date?	Notes
